Linwood Avenue Union Church 'Year of Jubliee'

On 13th February, Linwood Avenue Union Church launched its 'year of jubilee' celebrations. Fifty years earlier, on the second Sunday in February, the union parish had been formed by the coming together of three congregations: St Peter's Presbyterian Church (corner of Aldwins Rd and Ferry Rd), Woolston Methodist and the Linwood Avenue Church of Christ.

The service on February 13 focussed on owning the idea of a Biblical Year of Jubilee, but without the actual ceasing to work: Reflect, Reset, be Ready – reflect on the story that has shaped us to this point, reset and allow for new growth and new initiatives to occur, and be ready to walk into the unknown of the future with eagerness and faith.

The celebrations continued with delicious ice cream sundaes (manageable under Covid) after the service. Further events and specific Sunday celebrations will continue throughout the year at different times, picking up on this theme, sharing memories, and building new ones.

In 1972, when the union parish was established, five national churches (Anglican, Congregational, Churches of Christ, Methodist and Presbyterian) were fully engaged in moving towards forming one united church, The Church of Christ in New Zealand. Although the national united church did not come to pass, Linwood Avenue moved on hopefully and expectantly. The parish was proudly just 'the church' in the local community, endeavouring to show that Christians are one in Christ. People of any denomination (or none) have always been warmly welcomed.

In 1976 the parish decided to centralise on its Linwood Avenue site. That property has been extended and developed since then. It now has a fully refurbished and fit -for-purpose large main building, two houses (a manse and a house let to the Methodist Mission for its decentralised staff) and five emergency homes owned by the Methodist Mission on land leased by the parish. Across the Church, the Church's Trust (established 1998) and the Methodist Mission, about ten salaried staff serve the local community along with dozens of volunteers.

Knowing that oneness is the will of God, the prayer of Christ and the heart of the gospel, Linwood Avenue will be reflecting this year on our story, and planning to strengthen the church of Jesus Christ in the community in coming years.

Te Waiora House – Relief Hosts

Te Waiora House is located near Hororata, approximately 1 hour from Christchurch. It provides a tranquil haven for people who would like to retreat from the hurly-burly of life for a short period.

In order to maximise the use of this 5-bedroom Christian retreat house, we need people who have a heart for ministering to others, and who are able to intermittently come and stay in the house with guests while our regular hosts take time off. This is a voluntary role with accommodation provided while at Te Waiora.

Further information about Te Waiora House can be found at www.tewaiorahouse.org.nz.

Enquiries and/or expressions of interest can be made to hosts Wendy and Neil Wanhill, phone 027 406 0503 or email tewaiorahouse@xtra.co.nz.
