Rev Sheena Dickson

Rev Sheena Dickson died on Tuesday 6 May. Sheena was a UK United Reform Minister who served at St Georges Iona (Linwood/Aranui) in Christchurch from 2007 - 2022.

Sheena was a great advocate for all kinds of people with a heart for the poor. She was a founding member of Ecu-Action Canterbury and provided supply ministry at several churches in recent years. Sheena has various degrees and was a graduate of Oxford University. Sheena is survived by her daughter Kelly and partner Georgie. Her funeral was held at Knox Church in Christchurch on 15 May.

PART-TIME VACANCIES

St. Mark's Church Office Administrator

St Mark's Presbyterian Church and Community Centre, Avonhead, Christchurch, is looking for a Church Administrator to work 15 hours a week, preferably Monday to Friday, 9am - 12noon. We will be paying a Living Wage.

This administrative role will require working with the Minister, the Parish Clerk, the Community Enabler, and other key leaders, however, our church is currently without a Minister, and during the vacancy you will be working closely with our Parish Council and the Community Enabler .

The role includes

- Familiarity with Microsoft Office and OneDrive, and general computer skills
- Familiarity with Infoodle Church Management Software and Xero Accounting Software, or willingness to learn
- General office tasks, such as photocopying, ordering supplies, compiling reports, answering phone enquiries, maintaining building warrant of fitness

The ideal applicant will have a friendly and welcoming attitude and be self-motivated to undertake tasks, often without supervision. We would welcome a person who can see what needs to be done and do it, but who is also not afraid to ask for guidance or assistance as necessary.

If you would like to apply or would like more information please email Jill White, Parish Clerk, at parishclerk@stmarks.net.nz. Application closes Friday 23 May, 2025.

The successful candidate will start as soon as possible.

We are seeking a competent and organised Administrator to provide essential support to our Presbytery, Executive Officer, and staff. This is a diverse role in a high-trust, interdependent environment, ideal for a self-motivated team player.

Your key responsibilities will include:

- Managing the Presbytery database and minister records.
- Producing and distributing our weekly newsletter.
- Tracking minister supervision and parish reporting.
- Managing website content and official communications.
- Providing administrative support for meetings and other events within the Presbytery.
- Assisting with compliance in Health & Safety and Child Protection.

The ideal candidate will:

- Possess strong administrative and organisational skills.
- Demonstrate competence with computer-based work; proficiency with Google Workspace and Infodile database management is an advantage.
- Have experience in website content management.
- Have excellent communication and interpersonal abilities.
- Be able to work independently and as part of a collaborative team.
- Maintain confidentiality and operate with integrity.
- Align with the cultural and strategic framework of Alpine Presbytery and the Presbyterian Church of Aotearoa New Zealand's Code of Ethics.
- Demonstrate an understanding of and comfort with working within a Christian faith-based context.

If you, or someone you know, is looking for a rewarding role where you can contribute to a meaningful purpose, we encourage you to apply.

The possibility of combining the advertised administration role with St Mark's, Avonhead, can be considered if the total hours of the two roles is beneficial and a suitable candidate is identified.

To learn more and apply, please supply your CV to Dan Spragg at minco@alpinepresbytery.org

Applications close Friday 6 June 2025.

Catalysing Christian Communities: Conference in Dunedin

Save the date: 21-22 August 2025

PressGo (PCANZ) is working with the University of Otago Theology Department and First Church of Otago, along with the Dunedin Anglican Diocese, to host a visit of Rev Dr Sam Wells (St Martin's-in-the-Fields, London), on 21 & 22 August 2025.

Following on from the "Investing for Mission" Conference in 2023, we will offer a 2-day conference event. Sam will be the keynote speaker and conversation partner and will also give a public lecture at the University of Otago on Thursday 21 August at 5.15pm.

Sam is a well-known author, speaker, theologian and missiologist. His framework of Community, Commerce, Culture and Congregational Initiatives is part of his work on an incarnational theology of church culture, innovation and presence in a secular society.

This is a "don't miss" event. Further details will be available soon, so watch this space or email lisa.wells@xtra.co.nz to ensure you receive updates. An event hosted by the Anglican Diocese of Dunedin will be on the previous day, Wednesday 20 August and we expect attendees will be able to register for this event as well. Travel subsidies may be available.

Owned By

Hope Rolleston Presbyterian Church

The Hope Church Rolleston project showcases innovative problem-solving and meticulous planning, resulting in a modern church with a 400-seat worship hall, office, and kitchen. The worship hall incorporates energy-efficient heating, acoustic treatments, and flexible gathering spaces. Budget constraints necessitated the use of simple yet striking materials, with white brick and metal cladding framing a central glazed foyer. Delivering the project brought significant challenges, including funding uncertainties and discrepancies in council water mains records. Bushnell Builders worked closely with the Church to negotiate solutions, modifying a council water line to prevent costly disruptions. The team successfully delivered a space that balances practicality, sustainability, and architectural appeal through collaboration and adaptability.

Hope Rolleston Award

The Rolleston church building project received a gold award at last Friday night's New Zealand Commercial Project Awards. Congratulations to all involved!
